

VENDOR FORM: INSURANCE VERIFICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Risk Management

The vendor must include the following documents along with their proposal. Failure to include these documents may result in the vendor being considered non-responsive for this project.

1. Insurance Verification Form by Insurance Broker or Agent – This form is utilized by the Houston Independent School District to verify the current legitimacy of the insurance policies submitted. Vendors are REQUIRED to submit this signed form along with their proposal.

2. Certificate of Insurance (ACORD Form) OR Letter from Vendor's Insurance Broker or Agent (See explanation and details below)
 - A. Certificate of Insurance (ACORD Form) – Standard form utilized throughout the insurance industry, available through the vendor's insurance agency. This document is REQUIRED along with your submission UNLESS the vendor chooses to submit option B below. Vendor's choosing option A that are awarded this project will then have three (3) business days to provide a valid Certificate of Insurance (ACORD Form) to the Houston Independent School District upon notification of award.

 - B. Letter from Vendor's Insurance Broker or Agent – In lieu of submitting option A listed above, the Houston Independent School District will accept a letter from the vendor's insurance broker/agent stating the vendor can provide the levels of insurance specified in this project upon award. To be considered valid, this letter must be on the appropriate broker/agent letterhead and certify that the vendor will be able to provide a Certificate of Insurance (ACORD Form) confirming the coverages indicated within three (3) business days from notification of award. Further requirements are detailed on the sample letter provided.
